Pink Ribbon Round Up

I am attending the Pink Ribbon Round Up Saturday, October 10th and hitting the trails, on horseback for at least 3 hours, at North Park to raise money for breast cancer. All proceeds benefit breast cancer research in Western Pennsylvania through the Susan G Komer for the Cure Pittsburgh Affiliate.

I am hoping to raise $375.00. If any of you or your staff, family or friends are interested in making a donation to help me reach my goal it will be GREATLY appreciated. Checks can be made payable to Pink Ribbon Round Up.

Here is the site for the Pink Ribbon Round-Up if you want to learn more www.pinkribbonroundup.org

Quote of the Week

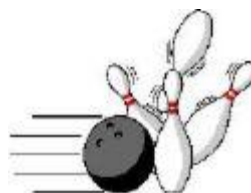

Go through your phone book, call people and ask them to drive you to the airport. The ones who will drive you are your true friends. The rest aren't bad people; they're just acquaintances.

Old Cell Phones

Recycle

Do you have an unused or old cell phone? Are you looking for a "Green" way to dispose of it?

Bring it to a meeting and we will donate the phones to a local organization that will use the funds received from the old phones to plant heritage trees.

Attendance

Perfect Attendance

We are one month into this years attendance records. As a club we are above 100%! That's really good.

There is no way that every person in our club will be able to attend every Wednesday lunch for a year. There are other ways for you to achieve Perfect attendance.

Here are some ways to get a make up...

1. Attend another clubs Rotary meeting
2. Attend a board meeting.
3. Attend a Rotary outing or fund raiser (any Rotary club will do)
4. If you are doing an errand for Rotary.

Anytime you do a make up please let Tom Myl know about it. His email is coraflash@aol.com

Joe's Jokes by Joe Kulik

A woman brought a very limp duck into a veterinary surgeon. As she laid her pet on the table, the vet pulled out his stethoscope and listened to the bird's chest.

After a moment or two, the vet shook his head sadly and said; "I'm sorry, your duck (Cuddles) has passed away."

The distressed woman wailed; "Are you sure?"

"Yes, I am sure. The duck is dead." replied the vet.

"How can you be so sure?" she protested. "I mean you haven't done any testing on him or anything. He might just be in a coma or something."

The vet rolled his eyes, turned around, and left the room.

He returned a few minutes later with a black Labrador Retriever. As the duck's owner looked on in amazement, the dog stood on his hind legs, put his front paws on the examination table, and sniffed the duck from top to bottom.

He then looked up at the vet with sad eyes and shook his head.

The vet patted the dog on the head and took it out of the room.

A few minutes later he returned with a cat. The cat jumped on the table and also delicately sniffed the bird from head to foot. The cat sat back on its haunches, shook its head, meowed softly, and strolled out of the room.

The vet looked at the woman and said; "I'm sorry, but as I said, this is most definitely, 100% certifiably, a dead duck."

The vet turned to his computer terminal, hit a few keys and produced a bill, which he handed to the woman.

The duck's owner, still in shock, took the bill.

"$150!" she cried; "$150 just to tell me my duck is dead!?"

The vet shrugged; "I'm sorry. If you had just taken my word for it, the bill would have been $20, but.....with the Lab Report and the Cat Scan, it's now $150.
