Presidents Message

A special Thanks to Sam Duerr III for his part in the Interact 10th Anniversary Celebration at Montour High School last Thursday. Sam puts a lot of energy into the Interact Club. He gets the students involved with many of our clubs activities and also heads the Rotary/Interact scholarship program. Many of these students will become leaders in their chosen professions and community.

The District Governor Rick Martin held a State of The District meeting Saturday morning in Green Tree. The topics he covered were Membership, Service Projects, District Conference, International Conference, Annual Giving, RYLA and much more. We had 3 members attending the meeting.

Parkway West Rotary is honored to have the District Governor speak at our meeting this week.

Joe's Jokes by Joe Kulik

A husband, oh let's call him Joe, says to his wife, "What would you do if I won the Powerball?"

His wife, oh let's call her Anita, says, "I'd take half, then leave you."

"Excellent," he replies, "I won 12 bucks, here's $6, now get out."

An attorney, oh let's call him Joe just for the heck of it, arrived home late, after a very tough day trying to get a stay of execution. His last minute plea for clemency for his client, Bob Wright, had failed. It seemed the Governor would not consider Joe's pleas, and Bob would find the noose around his neck that night.

Needless to say, Joe was feeling worn out and depressed. As soon as he walked through the door at home, his wife, oh let's call her Anita, started on him about, 'What time of night to be getting home is this? Where have you been? Dinner is cold and I'm not reheating it'. And on and on and on, as she always was wont to do..

Too shattered to play his usual role in this familiar ritual, he poured himself a shot of some good bourbon and headed off for a long hot soak in the bathtub, pursued by the predictable sarcastic remarks as he dragged himself up the stairs.

While he was in the bath, the phone rang. The wife answered and was told that her husband's client had been granted a stay of execution after all. Bob Wright would not be hanged tonight!!!!!!

Finally realizing what a terrible day Joe must have had, Anita decided to go up stairs and give him the good news. As she opened the bathroom door, she was greeted by the sight of her husband, bent over naked, drying his legs and feet.

'They're not hanging Wright tonight,' she said.

Joe whirled around and screamed, 'FOR THE LOVE OF GOD WOMAN, DON'T YOU EVER STOP?!'
