Presidents Message

Last week's meeting the District Governor Rick Martin came and addressed our club. He spoke about RYLA and some of the upcoming district events. The meeting was well attended.

The Heart of Caring luncheon was held on Friday. Our club purchased two tables and every seat was filled. The event was very well organized.

Ken Cory was Master of Ceremonies and heads this fund raiser for Partners For Quality. Lenny Shaw donated many jewelry items that were auctioned off. Jim Esposito's wife & daughters modeled the auction items and the donated a one week vacation in FL. Marcy Mckivitz and her son worked the room. Dave Bigger sold tickets. Mary Mitchell represented the consumers and made sure everything was on schedule.

We have some wonderful people in this club that give so much to help others. Thank you to all who contributed in any way to help make The Heart of Caring Luncheon successful.

Joe's Jokes by Joe Kulik

A funeral service is being held at St. Malachy Church for a woman, oh let's call her Anita, who has just passed away.

At the end of the service the pallbearers are carrying the casket out, when they accidentally bump into a wall, jarring the casket.

They hear a faint moan. They open the casket and find that Anita is actually alive!!

She lives for ten more years and then dies.

A ceremony is again held at the same church and at the end of the ceremony the pallbearers are again carrying her casket.

As they are walking out, the husband, oh let's call him Joe, yells, "Watch out for the wall!!"

A lady, let's call her Anita, was setting up her new computer. She was told by her wonderful husband, let's call him Joe, that she had to set up a new password. She tried putting in Mick-eyMinniePlutoHueyLouieDeweyDonaldGoofy

Joe suggested that maybe this was not a good password, and asked why she chose that. Anita said "hey, you told me it had to contain 8 characters!!"
