Presidents Message

Ken Corey did a great job choosing the location for the Presidents award dinner that was held Saturday at the Meadows Casino. The atmosphere was wonderful and the food was delicious. I was honored to present Paul Harris Fellowship to two of our members- Tom Myl and Brent Gaudio. They were awarded the Paul Harris Fellowship for their enthusiasm and commitment to Rotary and because they both do so much for the club.

Tom is the club secretary and attends almost every club event and meeting. He also is the first to volunteer to do anything that the club needs.

Brent publishes the weekly newsletter and he organizes two bowling fund raisers a year.

Please congratulate them for receiving the Paul Harris award and thank them for all they do to make this club successful.

Joe's Jokes by Joe Kulik

A carpet layer had just finished installing carpet for a lady. He stepped out for a smoke, only to realize he'd lost his cigarettes. In the middle of the room, under the carpet, was a bump. "No sense pulling up the entire floor for one pack of smokes," he said to himself. He proceeded to get out his hammer and flattened the hump. As he was cleaning up, the lady came in. "Here," she said, handing him his pack of cigarettes. "I found them in the hallway." "Now," she said, "if only I could find my parakeet."

One day, Tom went to the pet store and purchased a centipede, which came in a little box.

Tom took the centipede home and decided he would take his pet out on the town. He asked, "Would you like to go to the bar with me?"

But there was no answer from the box. This bothered him a bit, but he waited a few minutes and then asked again, "How about going to the bar and having a drink?"

But again, there was no answer. Finally, Tom put his face up against the centipede's house and shouted, "Hey, in there! Would you like to go out and have a drink with me?"

The centipede yelled back "hold your horses, I am still tying my shoes"
